“Creating Equity in Education”

TODAY'S FACILITATORS...

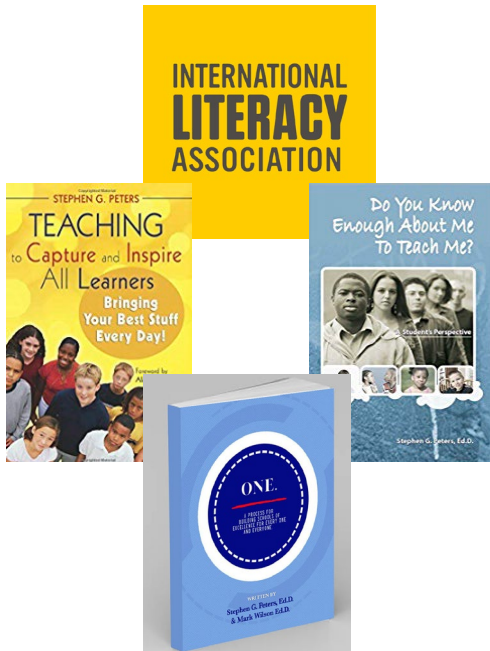

Dr. Stephen Peters,
The Peters Group

One of the most sought-after education speakers in the nation and the best-selling author of Do You Know Enough About Me To Teach Me? and Teaching to Capture and Inspire All Learners. His work was featured on the Oprah Winfrey show.

Dr. Peters is the President of the Board of the International Literacy Association and has a passion for advancing the lives of children, equity and inclusion.

As a former Superintendent of schools, he is steeped in the needs K-12 Sups face today and is an active coach and mentor!

Dr. Lee Pritzl,
SitelogIQ

Dr. Lee Pritzl, formerly Superintendent and educator for over 25 years is now part of the SIQ team as Educational Strategist. He holds a Doctorate of Organizational Leadership from Edgewood College. Lee is also certified in school safety as a CPP Certified Protection Professional.

His extensive work with school board development, advancing district leadership, and district strategic/visionary planning as president of Elevatedperformance4U provides a unique value when working with our client partners because Lee has effectively navigated a variety of issues and challenges during his career.

YOUR SITELOGIQ K12 HOPE TEAM

Denise Pontrelli,
True North Consulting

Denise has three decades of leadership experience as a superintendent, assistant superintendent, principal, coordinator for curriculum, professional development, and gifted services and classroom teacher.

Before joining True North Consulting Partners, Denise served in the role of superintendent for the Stillwater Area Public Schools in Minnesota where she led a $97M dollar referendum based on the Bridge to Excellence strategic plan and several initiatives aiming to drive student achievement and equity within her District.

Mary Ellen Elia,
Tsamoutales Strategies

Mary Ellen is former NY State Commissioner of Education and President of the University of New York. She has almost 50 years of experience as an educator and was NY's first female Education Commissioner.

Mary Ellen has been honored for her work, both in Florida and on a national stage. In 2015, she was named Florida's Superintendent of the Year, received the AASA Women in School Leadership Award from the School Superintendents Association, and was one of four finalists for the National Superintendent of the Year award.

QUESTION #1

1. Regarding community engagement and communication, how do you think differently now than you did 18 months ago?

Vision of Leadership

QUESTION #2

2) It is often said, “those closest to the problem, always deserve a seat at the table to solve those problems.” What innovative strategies do you activate to keep your community committed and engaged?

“Strategic Planning = Adaptive Planning”

“Reading Under the Stars”

“Principal for a Day”

“Two-Way Communication”

“Business Roundtables”

“Student Showcases”

“Student Interns”

“Learning & Equity Teams”

QUESTION #3

3) When is the BEST time to establish communication?

There is a certain “art” to engaging the community in a way that allows for positive momentum versus engaging the community in a way that is forced and closes the door to open dialogue.

Just when you need “support” or always?

How do we ensure everyone’s voice is heard?

You are the ambassador of the district
